Given the enforcement focus I'm thinking you don't need me there- but let me know if you would want a counseling lawyer there and I'll come.

I spoke with Melissa Hoffer, Chief of the Energy and Environment Bureau at the Mass AG's Office, this afternoon to discuss goals for the meeting tomorrow and to sketch out an agenda. Goals of the meeting are to better understand each office's enforcement priorities and to discuss opportunities for coordination on enforcement matters. As for an agenda, we agreed each office would describe organizational structure, enforcement priorities, examples of and opportunities for collaboration. Melissa said she also would be interested in hearing about EPA's plans to address PFAS issues. (An attorney from the MassAG's Office attended the recent summit).

Attendees for Mass AG's office:

Melissa Hoffer, Chief, Energy and Environment Bureau
Christophe Courchesne, Chief, Environmental Protection Division
Betsy Harper, Deputy Chief, Environmental Protection Division
David Clayton, Chief, Environmental Crimes Strike Force
